

Mr P & 'The Forager Lady' @ Mr P's Curious Tavern

Thursday 25th April 2019

Alysia Vasey of Yorkshire Foragers describes herself as a third generation expert forager, top restaurant supplier and botanicals supplier. When appearing on BBC's Countryfile programme she was asked to suggest a Chef to cook some of her produce, which was when Andrew met Alysia.

Here they join forces again, Andrew doing the cooking and Alysia explaining the foraged ingredients for a dinner bringing freshly picked flavours to downtown Low Petergate.
